

Case Study

Uxbridge Underground Station

Location: Uxbridge
Completed: November 2008
Client: London Underground

Duration: 20 months
Value: £2,250,000

Works Included

Brickwork cleaning and repairs, AGP removal, application of AGP, major concrete repairs, protective coatings, re-build parapets, brick up openings re-pointing in lime mortar, brick replacement, core samples and petrographic analysis, roof cleaning, back of house works including decoration, plumbing, electrics, suspended ceilings and tiling.

“Metropex are keen to work for you, capable of adjusting to changes as they appear throughout the project programme. Always willing to assist and will ‘go the extra mile’ to deliver.”

rail underground
infrastructure

